This school year the program operated hybrid services of remote learning and in-person services due to COVID-19. The program strived to provide learning opportunities to all children and families by zoom calls, one-on-one teacher/child sessions, at home visits, educational packets, and classroom sessions. Each child and family received education packs that included glue, paper, crayons, etc., to complete remote learning at home.

Parent Involvement Activities:

This school year ended differently due to COVID-19. Our program in-person and virtual option allowed us to provide learning opportunities to children and families.

Monthly Educational Meetings held via zoom this past year included topics on, but not limited to budgeting, meal planning, adult education, mental health, abuse, first aid & CPR, transportation safety, literacy, and fitness; family goal planning; child educational goal setting; classroom celebrations; shared governance involvement through Policy Council; Early Head Start Socializations; Virtual HS 500, EHS 500, involvement in committees including but not limited to Health Advisory, Disabilities/Mental Health Committee, and School Readiness Leadership Committee.

Readiness Preparation:

Head Start

The Head Start program is to prepare children for kindergarten. The program uses the researched based Creative Curriculum. The curriculum has a strong emphasis on literacy. The program aligns itself with the Head Start Framework and local school expectations. Large group, small group, and free exploration times are planned throughout the day to provide for teacher directed and child directed learning. A letter is focused on each week to encourage children to letter and sound recognition.

Children are assessed through DRDP and work sampling. Teachers then plan for each child according to their needs for improvement as demonstrated by the assessment information. Activities are used to provide learning opportunities and practice to master skills.

The program also provides information to children and families concerning what to expect when they transition to kindergarten and round-up dates for kindergarten.

Early Head Start

The program uses the research based Creative Curriculum. Children explore the environments freely and activities are guided by the teaching staff.

Children are assessed through DRDP and observations. Teachers then plan for each child according to their needs for improvement as demonstrated by the assessment information. Activities are used to provide learning opportunities and practice to master skills. The program also provides information to children and families concerning transitioning into other programs after leaving Early Head Start.

Both Head Start and Early Head Start have established school readiness goals that align with the Indiana Foundations, local school systems, and the Head Start Readiness Framework. The school readiness goals are attached to this report.
